

L. MICHELLE SMITH

Executive & Business Coach Speaker | Author

In business, L. Michelle Smith has lived it.

She is the CEO/founder of no silos communications llc, the parent company for six media, content, talent development and strategic communications consulting brands, all fueled by tech. She has more than 25 years of experience as an elite, award-winning communicator and integrated marketer at global agencies, her own boutique agencies and a Fortune 10 technology, telecom and media company.

She is principal at NSC Executive & Business Coaching, a private practice, and is also the lead trainer at The 30 Minute Mentor™ (#30MM), a knowledge platform which organizes career and leadership cohorts for entrepreneurs and corporate professionals and online masterclasses. She is also the creator, executive producer and host of The Culture Soup Podcast® which has been consistently in the Top 10 on Apple Podcasts in the Business/Business News category over the past year. It is heard on every continent, including 38 countries and was recently listed as one of Black Enterprise's list of podcasts to "download and listen to" for 2019. The show's episode "The Coaching Corner" was recently added to LinkedIn LIVE where viewers can watch the production before the audio is streamed online..

Previously, she raced to the officer ranks in no time in her career, making vice president before the age of 30. Then she "fell" into entrepreneurship, marking their million-dollar milestone in year 5. She's held officer-level positions for about half her career, but most recently answered the call at Fortune 10 company AT&T. They needed someone to build their D&I corporate communications capability from scratch. She did that in two years, then built another innovative, award-winning business model to compliment it, inclusion marketing.

She is one of the most-sought after contemporary keynote speakers, facilitators, panelists and hosts on topics surrounding technology, business and culture, and has been featured across the country on some of the most important stages across multiple industries.

L. Michelle is also an official contributor to Black Enterprise, an adjunct professor of strategic communications at the Bob Schieffer College of Communications at Texas Christian University where she also sits on the Board of Visitors and is also the face of their national ad campaign.
